ACADEMY CLASSES

2019-20 Long Island Horse Show Series for Riders with Disabilities (LIHSSRD)

Riders will be judged on their performance during each class. Judging criteria consists of rider balance, seat, use of aids, horsemanship, control of horse, ring etiquette, safety, sportsmanlike conduct, suitability of the horse/rider match and the position of the rider. Judges may ask for posting trot, sitting trot, and two-point position and all USEF beginner tests including asking horsemanship questions to the riders (Suggested reference is United States Pony Club: Basics for Beginners D Manual). Riders unable to perform any task asked of them due to physical limitations may describe the action to the judge. Riders must have a documented disability, and submit an information sheet with proof of eligibility with their first entry of the season. Riders who have competed in recognized divisions are ineligible. The top 10 riders in each division who participate in a minimum of three (3) LIHSSRD events during the year will be invited to compete in the finals at the Hampton Classic Horse Show.
